

The Giddings News

June 24, 1932

FIRE ALARM

The fire alarm was sounded Monday at almost 1 p. m. when the oil stove in the M. L. Meltzen home was on fire. The oven was ablaze, but prompt action of the chemical apparatus of the fire department prevented any further damage. The damage was slight.