

The Giddings News

December 5, 1924

BURGLAR

Carl Merchant happened to get up during the night Wednesday night and he encountered a burglar in his home. The intruder pulled Mr. Merchant about and also through a screen door and escaped with Mr. Merchant's trousers. They were found in another part of town with the money removed.