

The Giddings News

July 18, 1924

Martin Mierslovsky happened to get his arm broken Wednesday. The starter to a truck would not work, so he attempted to crank the engine with the result that one bone in the forearm was broken.