

The Giddings News

August 14, 1931

HOME MADE LIVING

Ed. Schumann reports a visit to Aug. Mertink's and a look into the pantry where 400 quarts of canned vegetables were put up this summer. The collection consists of all garden and orchard products and the various products will provide good eating when the cold northerly winds blow. August has finished out a room in his house with brick and double ceiling for storage of the canned goods.