

The Giddings News

April 1, 1932

THIEVERY FROM HOMES

John Mertink was in town Monday and stated that some one entered his home below Northrup that morning while he was at church and stole 12 dozen eggs and $1.50 in money, besides helping himself to something to eat. A previous Saturday some one entered the home of Rott. Miersiovsky on the Grassyville road and took all the canned goods, meal, bread, flour and even the flavoring extracts, not leaving enough for the family to prepare supper that night. No clues have been found.