

Martin Luther Church Mission Festival Guest Speakers

REV. WM. A. MUELLER

The Martin Luther Church, Rev. Fred Mgebrott pastor, will observe its annual Mission Festival this Sunday, October 11th, in four festival services with sermons by three well-known Lutheran pulpit speakers.

In the main festival service, beginning at 9 a. m., the Rev. Wm. A. Mueller of Rosebud will preach the sermon. The Rev. Mueller, son of the Rev. Wm. Mueller, Sr., of Giddings, is a native of Giddings and son of the Martin Luther Church.

In the Sunday School service, beginning at 10:15 a. m., the Rev. Mueller will give a special address.

At 2:30 p. m. a festival service will be held in the German language with the sermon by Dr. Wm. Kraushaar of Seguin. Dr. Kraushaar has served as president of the Texas Lutheran College in Seguin for the past twenty-four years and is well known in this community. Dr. Kraushaar will also display his New Guinea relics which are considered one of the finest collections personally owned in this Country.

In the night service, beginning at

REV. ROALD BRAULICK

7:30 p. m., the Rev. Roald Braulick of Taylor will preach the sermon. Rev. Braulick is serving as second vice-president of the Texas District, American Lutheran Church.

All services will be edified with appropriate anthems by the church choirs, and offerings will be brought for the support of the American Lutheran Church's missions.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these festival services at the Martin Luther Church on this Sunday.
