Michael Michna will bbq anywhere.

As a Marine in Iraq as part of the advance US forces, he had to make do with what he had available, so he fashioned some material into a grill in order to live-fire cook for his fellow warriors.

As a civilian firefighter years later, he started cooking for his fellow firefighters during their long shifts at the station. He packed in so much practice that he and a friend started up @reveillebbq.

You can now find him cooking great Texas bbq in more established digs in Pinehurst, Texas.

Michael cooks on an @arnisrobbins special reverse-flow smoker.
