

The Giddings News

January 27, 1922

The fire boys were called out yesterday afternoon when a small fire broke out from the flue at the residence of Herman Mickan near the vailduct. The little chemical engine was on the job, but the fire was out when the machine reached the place.