

The Giddings News

December 2, 1921

SILVER WEDDING

John Miertschin and wife of Northrup were remembered by their friends and relatives Friday of last week, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary. Ernest Symmank read a suitable poem and after those assembled had partaken of a bounteous repast, the evening was spent in singing and other amusements that caused the pair many happy remembrance of their anniversary.

The News joins their numerous friends in wishing them many more years of happiness and prosperity.