

The Giddings Star
July 4, 1941

STRUCK BY COPPER-HEAD

While pulling up weeds and cleaning up around the place, Alwin Mitschke of Giddings R. 1, was bitten by a copperhead on Wednesday June 18. Coming to town for medical treatment at once, Alwin overcame all bad after effects and is doing nicely.