

The Giddings News

January 1, 1932

Trainmaster J. J. Moore was here Tuesday from Austin. He will move his family to Victoria Jan. 1, to which place he has been transferred. His friends regret that he and family did not move to Giddings, but wish them well in their new location. Railroad men are decidedly unsettled these days.