

The Giddings News

December 5, 1941

— 0 —

Herbert Mosebach who worked in the News shop last year while attending high school, was a caller Saturday. He is in Houston working at the ship-building dry docks. He likes his work, especially since his draft number for the army service is way down the line on account of his occupation.