

The Giddings News
February 20, 1920

GROCERY STORE SOLD AGAIN

Mrs. Selma Duisberg, who bought the grocery store last summer from Mr. Fred Mueller when he sold out and went to Seguin where he and his wife are teaching school, has sold the stock of goods to Mrs. Emma Fischer, who will take charge March 1st. Mrs. Fischer says her boys all want to get away from home as soon as they get large enough to work and she will try another way of making a living.