

The Giddings News

February 15, 1924

Lee County Real Estate Advancing

Paul Artmann has sold his black land farm in the New Oldenburg community to Gus Namken and one of the Flacher boys at a price of $55 per acre, which is an advance of $15 per acre since Artmann bought the property about six years ago. Lee County real estate is a safe investment, it seems.