

The Giddings News

August 11, 1950

J. D. Jantzen of Ely, Nevada, was home for a 3-week vacation. He visited in Dallas and Fort Worth. His brother, Odell, and sister, Grace, and Ruby Namken accompanied him back on his trip to Ely. They stopped at Carlsbad Caverns, visited Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Miller in Springerville, Arizona, stopped at Boulder Dam, the copper mine in Ruth, Nevada, the salt plant in Salt Lake City, coming through Wyoming and Colorado on their return trip.