

The Giddings News

July 31, 1931

FAREWELL ENTERTAINMENT

Employees of the Farmers Supply Co. and the 'M' System honored Miss Lydia Wagner and Erwin Neitsch whose marriage will take place next Sunday, with a spread at the Airline Park Monday night. The color scheme of pink and green, the colors chosen by the bride-to-be for the wedding, was carried out in the decorations. Miss Wagner has been an employee of the Farmers Supply Co. for several years and Erwin is a young business man of Giddings. They will make their home in Giddings where they will be among their many friends.

P. G. Liberty acted as toastmaster for the occasion and an joyable social time was spent by about seventy persons. Among those present were: P. G. Liberty, C. A. Domaschk, O. Winkler, Paul Mutschink, Henry Nerger, A. Schuhmann, A. Slegmund, P. G. Hohle and their families; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moerbe and Mr. and Mrs. P. Aibers of Port Arthur; Misses Emily and Marie Schroeder, Dora Laake, Ida Neumann; Edwin Blar, Martin Nerger.