

The Giddings News

January 16, 1942

RESIDENCE IN LEXINGTON BURNED

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the residence of Mrs. Carrie Nettles in Lexington early Monday morning. Nearly all the contents were destroyed. One roomer upstairs sustained slight injuries when escaping the fire. The house was the former Hardcastle residence, rebuilt by Connor Porter, a large structure with three thickness of walls.