

The Giddings News

June 1, 1923

H. Neumann arrived Tuesday from Germany to visit Albert Mann, a relative. He says that conditions in Germany are bad as the laborers are working only about three days in a week and they can hardly exist on that. He says that the quota for immigration from Germany to the U. S. has not been reached and many want to come, but they do not have the price of the trip.