

The Giddings News

February 27, 1942

Setting an all-time world's record for the highest price paid for a chicken in any market poultry show, this nine and three-fourths pound Cornish game capon sold for $500 at the Houston Fat Stock Show & Livestock Exposition. Left is Jack Turner of the Famous Chicken House, Houston, who bought the chicken, and right is Luther Nyeror of Manor, Texas, the boy who raised the capon.