

The Giddings News

October 12, 1923

Parker Case Affirmed

The John C. Parker case which went up from Lee County district court to the court of criminal appeals was affirmed by the latter named court this week. The original verdict was five years in the penitentiary. It is probable that an appeal to a still higher court will be taken.