

The Giddings News

April 9, 1953

Miss Peek Retiring
As Teacher Here

Miss Lillian Peek, teacher of homemaking in the Giddings High School for the past six years, and who will retire on July 1, will be honored at the Giddings Future Homemakers banquet April 9 at the Giddings High School Gym.

She is one of three adults in Texas who will receive the State Honorary Future Homemakers award.

Miss Peek founded the Future Homemakers organization. She taught at the University of Minnesota, Colorado State College, Louisiana State University, the State Teachers College at Buffalo, N. Y. She was state director of Home-making education of the State Board for Vocational Education for several years.

Since coming to Giddings she has worked with the Community Council and the Giddings Garden Club in addition to other civic projects.