

The Giddings Star

June 18, 1953

Homemaking Dept.
Receives Two Honors

Giddings Homemaking Department receives two distinct honors.

First, the Texas Future Homemakers Association has invited Juanice Peyton to serve on the Color Guard which will present the colors as Texas' contribution to the Third General Session of the National Future Homemakers Association meeting at Columbus, Ohio on July 4th, 1953.

Juanice will carry the United Nations flag in the ceremony. Others on the Color Guard are: Betty Cervenka, State F.H.A. president, Granger; Jane Stark and Nella Stark, Austin; Nell Davidson, Granger; Sue Blanchard, Gatesville; Carolyn and Betty Sue Cowan, Lampasas.

The second honor came when the National Advisor of the Future Homemakers of America, who had attended the Texas Future Homemakers Convention in San Antonio and heard the Giddings F.H.A.

Chapter triple-trio sing the Giddings Prayer Song as the invocation. Requested the privilege of using this invocation at the National meeting.

Miss Lillian Peek wrote the words of this song for the Giddings Chapter six years ago, to be sung to the tune of Brahms' Lullaby.

Juanice will travel by train from Austin to Columbus accompanied by Miss Gladys Short, Area VII Supervisor. Betty Cervenka, State

President and Nell Davidson of Granger.

The Giddings Chapter is very proud of Juanice, and the fact that she can have this prominent part on the National Program for our Chapter.
