November 23, 1923

Mr. R. F. Peschke of Grassyville was in Monday paying for a new subscription to the News. He made 15 bales of cotton this year against 10 for last year on the same acreage. He marketed cotton from 22 cents for the first bale to 33 1-4 cents for the last bale. The majority of his cotton was sold for 28 and 29 cents. He says that another year like 1923 and this country will feel the effects of prosperity. Mr. Peschke says he will sure be at the Lee County Poultry Show and possibly bring some of his fine chickens.
