

The Giddings News

December 19, 1924

J. F. Peters of Giddings who is attending A. & M. College was highly honored by being elected a member of the Ross Volunteers of that institution. Membership in that organization means the highest honor conferred by the school and carries with it social honors as well as fitness in military distinction.