

The Giddings News

July 28, 1922

Almost Drowned

Tuesday night while several negro children and one older person were bathing in the tank at the place until recently occupied by Mrs. Bissell a woman by the name of Phillips almost drowned. She had swung over the water by means of a wire and the wire broke letting her fall into the water. The children rushed several blocks distant and gave the alarm and Everett ran and rescued her.