

Mrs. Laura Lee Pieratt Assumes Duties as Field Worker for DPW

Mrs. Laura Lee Pieratt assumed her duties as field worker in the Lee County office of the State Department of Public Welfare on Monday, Feb. 6.

She will administer the assistance program in the north part of Lee County formerly served by John Lanier.

Mr. Lanier has transferred to La Grange into the Fayette County office.

Clarence Schwake of La Grange, area supervisor for Lee and Fayette Counties, announces that a change in intake in the Lexington office will be effective immediately. Applications for assistance at Lexington will be accepted by appointment only or in the Giddings office on the first and third Mondays.

Applicants desiring to make application in Lexington should write Mrs. Pieratt at her Giddings office for an appointment.
