

The Giddings Star

June 2, 1955

Receives Degree

Leatrice Mae Pietsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pietsch of Winchester received her Associate of Arts degree from Temple Junior College and Scott and White Memorial Hospital School of Nursing at Temple Friday night.

Leatrice Mae was one of 41 candidates receiving the A. A. degree and one of 19 nurses of the class of 1955 to become a graduate nurse. She also received the Maude Scott Award, for accuracy in her work and good citizenship. This award is presented annually to one graduating nurse that meets certain specified qualifications. Leatrice Mae's award is a Bulova wrist watch.

Those attending the graduation from Winchester were her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pietsch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lehmann and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lehmann and family of Winchester; also Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Pietsch of Bryan.