

The Giddings News

June 12, 1942

ANNIVERSARY SALE

Completing their 20th year in business in Giddings and also the first year in their present location, Pratho's is announcing an Anniversary Sale in their store of a complete line of family needs in general merchandise. The firm has enjoyed good patronage during the past years of uncertain conditions and hopes to continue carrying such stocks that are in demand in the Giddings trade territory. Some special bargains are offered in this sale. The News joins in extending the firm best wishes for many more years of business in Giddings.