

The Giddings News

May 13, 1932

SIGNS OF HYDROPHOBIA

John Pratho was bitten by a dog recently, and as it had acted curiously, he had the head sent to the Pasteur Institute, Austin, for examination. The report was that the dog was mad and Mr. Pratho is taking the treatment. It has later been found out that the dog bit a cow, some hogs and chickens but it is not known if it bit any children or dogs.