

G. H. S. Classmates Complete University Course

F. X. McGuire

Ted A. Preusser Jr.

The College of Business Administration of the University of Texas announced the graduation of F. X. McGuire of La Grange and Ted A. Preusser, Jr. of Giddings. Both are graduates of Giddings High School and both served in the Navy during World War II.

Francis attended A & M College during his first college year while Ted spent the first year at Texas Lutheran College in Seguin before entering the University at Austin. Both received their Bachelor of Business Administrative Degree on July 15, 1949. Francis will be in the produce business with his father at La Grange while Ted is planning to make his home in San Antonio to follow public accounting.
