JUDGE PRICE ANNOUNCES

District Judge J. B. Price announces in this issue of the Giddings News as a candidate for re-election to the office of District Judge. He feels that he is well qualified to give efficient and satisfactory service in the office and promises, if re-elected, to continue discharging the duties of the office to the best of his ability. His health is much improved over what it was in past years. He will appreciate your vote and influence.
