

Reat New Farm Bureau President

Mr. Arvil Reat of Lexington is to be president of the Bureau after a rest of one year. Mr. Reat served for two consecutive years as president then was followed by Mr. Doss Brown of Tanglewood for the year 1952. Mr. Ed Krenek of Dime Box was elected as Vice-President. Mr. Krenek is also a regular member of the Lee County PMA Committee. A secretary has not been selected but plans are to select one as soon as possible. Mr. Elmo Kieschnick will continue as secretary until one is selected.

Mr. Elwood Sump of Giddings was elected to be Service Agent for the Lee County Farm Bureau. at a later date Mr. Sump will take over the insurance operations for the county membership. There has not been a full time service agent since Mr. W. C. Lynn moved away. Several members had already let out sighs of relief to know that we will again have a man to go to at anytime with their insurance problems.

Directors present at the meeting were: Mr. O. A. Hillgeist, of Lexington; Ed Krenek of Dime Box; Arvil Reat of Lexington; Clarence Boriack of Fedor; George Kieschnick of Lincoln; Elmo Kieschnick of Lincoln; Doss Brown of Tanglewood; and Quintus Lehman of Prospect. Absent were Bill Pieratt of Giddings; Hugh Milburn of Good Hope; Martin Boriack of Loo-bau; Matthes Mertink of Serbin. All of these above listed directors will serve for one more year.
