

Two Charged With Assault In County Court

Edmund Reuther and Edwin Boettcher Jr., both of Lincoln, pleaded guilty in County Court, Monday, May 29, to a charge of aggravated assault and were each fined $100 and costs.

They were specifically charged by court officials with aggravated assault by attempting to hang with a rope one Milton Schulze of Serbin on or about Sunday, May 28.

The assault was reported to have occurred near Dave's Place on the Loebau Road. According to information its success was prevented by nearby residents who were attracted by the noise involved in the fracas.

Reuther and Boettcher entered a plea of guilty as charged before the court.
