

The Giddings Star

February 23, 1956

Frosch, Ricketson
Chosen Favorites
At Lexington School

Florene Frosch and Charles Allen Ricketson have been chosen as Miss and Mr. Lexington High School. Both are members of the 1956 senior class.

Florene, the daughter of Mrs. Lena Frosch and the late Clarence Frosch, is editor-in-chief of the annual staff, assistant drum major, drill squad president, harvest coronation princess, and a member of the varsity basketball team.

She will represent Lexington High at the Valentine coronation at Giddings on Feb. 9.

Florene is one of the two girls who have received the State Degree in Homemaking in the History of Lexington High School.

Charles Allen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Ricketson. He is art editor of the annual staff, harvest coronation prince, captain of the Eagle football team, and vice-president of the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America.