

The Giddings News

January 23, 1942

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

A party composed of O'Barr Rost, Ted Simmang, Melvin Etzel, and H. E. Evans, driver, was returning Friday night from a fishing trip to Port Aransas and as they stopped in La Grange near the postoffice for a light signal, another auto ran into them from the rear. O'Barr who was on the back seat, got some ribs broken and his back injured. He is in a hospital where he is in a cast for several weeks. Etzel and Simmang received slight bruises.