

The Giddings News

February 12, 1932

RETIRE FROM RAILROAD
WORK

C. C. Rutherford has been relieved of active duty as station agent at Winchester on account of disability from poor health. He is now living in Giddings but thinks he will soon move to another locality. He will soon be eligible for a pension. His friends wish for him a recovery, now that he is taking a rest after many years of steady