

The Giddings News

May 13, 1932

MANY BIRDS KILLED

Fritz Sander, janitor at the court house, reports finding more than 200 dead birds Saturday morning of last week about the court house and on the clock tower. The birds were mostly of a yellow-breasted variety, resembling a canary bird, but larger. They evidently were blinded by the bright light and flew against the brick wall and broke their necks.