

High School Favorite

DOROTHY SANDERS

Gest And Sanders Crowned Favorites Of Giddings High

Adkins Named Princess,
Bolsins Named Prince

Dorothy Sanders, senior, and Arbie Gest, sophomore, were crowned Giddings High School favorites in the gym Monday, Feb. 13.

Arbie crowned the queen and presented her with a bouquet of red carnations, while Dorothy, in return, gave Arbie a kiss.

Betty Adkins and Shelley Bolsins were Prince and Princess.

The royal party was entertained with a play "Catesby", enacted by Irene Kappler and Roland Teague, under the direction of Mrs. Ann Kelly. A boy's quintette composed of James Arndt, Floyd Zoch, Roland Teague, James Emmrich and Oscar Placke sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "Lucky Old Sun."

Otis Faske and Floyd Zoch gave several harmonica selections.

Virginia Karcher sang "If I Loved You" and "I Can Dream, Can't I." Eola Nell Tate, Irene Kappler, and Virginia Karcher sang "Easter Parade." Georgie McDonald gave a piano selection.

The queen's attendants besides Prince Shelley and Princess Betty were class favorites, Marilyn Rost and Jackie Placke, freshmen; Delores Zschech and Howard Burtschell, sophomores; Marlene Keng and Bobby Lorenz, juniors; Helen Burtschell and Marvin Fischer, seniors.

Visiting school favorites included Gloria Lee Becker and Lester Davis from Lexington; Jo Ellen Haddle and John Ayres from Navasota; Elsie Ann Lange and James Kiesewetter from Bellville; and Mary Joyce Pavlik and Joseph Patton from La Grange.

An honorary court consisted of Ruth Melcher, Band Sweetheart and escort, Kenneth Studtmann and Virginia Karcher, Football Sweetheart, and escort, Buster Rost.

Also included in the court were the grammar school favorites, Jossie Spruill and Virgil Mutschink. Favorites from the three primary grades were Billy Placke and Carolyn Gray.

Honorary nominees who were in the royal party were Shirley Ann McIntosh, Joyce Ann Gruetznier, Eunice Kasper, and Jane Winkler. Billy Ira Dippel, James Arndt, Herman Zoch and William Arndt.

Flower girls were Mary Weigelt and Patricia Fields. Crown bearers were Marcus Dixon and Charles Fields, Jr.

Refreshments were served in the lunchroom after the coronation by the senior room-mothers. Refreshments consisted of punch and cookies.