

The Giddings News

May 1, 1942

ENTERS SALES CONTEST

Carlton Schlosshan who is a salesman for the Watkins Co. has entered the contest of that company wherein it is offering large bonuses to dealers. Such payments will be made in war defense bonds and stamps. With the scarcity of household products on account of war demands, Carlton says he is yet able to supply many household needs of everyday use.