

The Giddings News

April 1, 1932

H. F. SCHLOSSHAN
ANNOUNCES

To the People of Lee County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for nomination to the office of County Judge of Lee County, in the Democratic Primary to be held on July 23rd, next.

In connection with this announcement, I promise, if elected, a courteous, impartial, economical and efficient performance of the varied duties of the office. I also, specially pledge my best efforts toward lightening the intolerable burden of taxation on the people — a burden which has been gradually increasing, while their ability to pay has been decreasing. Apparently this can be done only by spending less of public funds, at least until better times return; however, I would favor taking the people into our confidences before making any radical changes.

More highways and better public roads for the minimum expenditure shall continue to be my motto.

Thanking you for all past favors and soliciting your vote and support in this campaign, I am,

Yours very truly,
H. F. Schlosshan.