

Schmidt Attends School Meeting

School principals and other educational administrators from all parts of Texas met at the University of Texas recently to discuss "The Principal and the Improvement of Teaching."

The one-week work conference was the second in a series of five sessions for school leaders.

Among those attending the meetings was Everett Schmidt, high school principal and band director of Giddings High School.