SPEC members award six scholarships

Several thousand members of South Plains Electric Cooperative voluntarily participate in an innovative program to provide funding for many worthy projects in local communities. It's called Operation Round Up and it is administered by the South Plains Electric Trust.

The latest Operation Round Up project includes awarding $4,000 in scholarships to six graduating seniors from our local high schools.

The recipients include, Amy Cherry of Shallowater, $500 recipient; Nicholas Westbrook of Lorenzo, $1,000 recipient; Von Montgomery of New Deal, $1,000 recipient; Craig Stanton of Shallowater, $500 recipient; Katie Knight of Lubbock, $500 recipient; and Shiloh King of Hale Center, $500 recipient.
