Gets New Title

Principal E. Schultz, of Trinity Lutheran Church, Houston for 43 years received the new title of Principal Emeritus in Sunday's service. His successor is Carl Ernst Aufdemberge, age 25 years. It was stated that for 43 years he guided the fledgling footsteps of Trinity Lutheran Day School Students as their Christian tutor and counselor, and during these many years he saw only one youngster lost to juvenile delinquency, thus the title bestowed on him Sunday speaks for itself.

Mr. Schultz is however not retiring, he will continue to teach grades 7 and 8 to the end of the current term, and beginning in September he will teach only grade 8.

Quoting Mr. Schultz: With the Bible as a guide and textbook, properly taught by able consecrated teachers will answer all the problems our youth may encounter.

Mr. Schultz was a classmate of Mr. L. O. Kasper, teacher emeritus of St. Paul's Lutheran School, Serbin, now living in Houston where he is a Monument salesman.
