

Local Welfare Man Attends Conference At Santa Fe, N. M.

Walter A. Schulz, local representative of the State Department of Public Welfare, attended the Southwestern Regional Conference of the American Public Welfare Association at Santa Fe, New Mexico, on October 2 and 3.

The trip was made by car with Field Worker W. Miller Hopper of Elgin and Supervisors Nolan Schulze of San Marcos and Clarence Schwake of La Grange.

The Southwestern Region of the American Public Welfare Association consists of the six states of Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Kansas.

The agenda of the conference included lectures on various aspects of the social welfare field, on new developments in the social security laws, and the annual regional business meeting.
