

The Giddings News

June 5, 1931

BITTEN BY COPPERHEAD

Herman Schulze of Serbin was bitten Tuesday by a copperhead snake while shucking corn in his crib. The snake struck his hand, but he succeeded in killing it by stamping it with his foot. Herman was in town Wednesday, with his hand bandaged up.