

The Giddings News

May 13, 1932

E. W. Seale was selected as president of the state teachers' college at Kingsville this week, to succeed the late R. B. Cousins. The editor had the pleasure of teaching young Seale when he was in high school, and knows him to be a steady and capable administrator. He will make a good college president for he showed such tendencies early in life.