

The Giddings News

February 13, 1931

The members and teachers of the seventh grade, of which Charles Seelke was a member, surprised him with a picnic at seven mile Rabb's creek on the eve of his departure with his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Seelke for their new home in Temple. Those who attended were Mrs. George Allen, Misses Mary

West and Ella Strattman; Margaret Droemer, Tena Stueber, Albert Karcher, Ellen Durrenberger, Alta Marie Placke, Ruth De Young, Nina Heck, Viola Frazier, Allen Seale, Lucile Fritsche, Otto Schmidt, Dale Beaman, Lina Artmann, Onia Mae Stork, Henry Witte, Rubin Schneider, Milton Hejtmancik, Raymond Wilson, G. W. Black, Elsie Schmidt, Chester Stork, Fred Willard.