

The Giddings News

February 19, 1932

— 0 —

R. J. SIEGMUND ANNOUNCES

To the Voters of Precinct No. 1,
Lee County:

I hereby take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for the office of Commissioner of Precinct No. 1, Lee County, Texas, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary July 23rd, 1932.

I feel that I am well qualified to hold the office, as I am well acquainted with the character of work and duties of the Commissioner. I am also acquainted with the legal phase of the office, having served as an active Justice of the Peace of Precinct No. 5, for the past nine years.

I am in favor of lowering the taxes of the county, by cutting out all unnecessary expenses, lowering the salaries of certain officials including the commissioners salary, and by demanding an equal rendition of all taxable property. If elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office fairly and impartially towards the entire precinct and county.

Assuring you that any support you may give me will be highly appreciated, I remain,

Yours truly,

R. J. Siegmund.