

Senate Resolution Is Memorial to E. T. Simmang Sr.

The State Senate at Austin passed a resolution in memory of Emil T. Simmang, Giddings attorney, who died suddenly at his home on Monday, March 23.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Gus J. Strauss of Hallettsville.

The resolution stresses the accomplishments of the deceased member of the bar as a public spirited civic leader in his community.

A copy of the resolution was submitted to the family of the deceased.

The resolution also provided that the Senate stand adjourned at the end of the day in memory of the Hon. Emil T. Simmang.

The resolution was signed by Rogers Kelley, president pro-tempore of the Senate and by Loyce M. Bell, secretary of the Senate.
