

The Giddings News

December 10, 1920

Edward Sinks arrived home for Thanksgiving and until Tuesday night when he returned to Dallas and went with a steel company December 1st. He has formerly been in Dallas with the Internal Revenue Office, sent there from Galveston last summer.